The Applied Networking Research Prize recognises:

• the best recent results in applied networking
• interesting new research ideas of potential relevance to the Internet standards community
• and upcoming people that are likely to have an impact on Internet standards and technologies
Three ANRP award talks presented during the IRTF open meeting earlier today:

- Gautam Akiwate for his work on the risks of domain hijacking due to registrar practices
- Corinne Cath for her ethnographic work on the IETF’s distinct organisational culture and how its ‘rough’ edges limit the ability of human rights’ advocates to get their concerns included in technical discussions
- Daniel Wagner for his work on DDoS attack detection and mitigation
